

Under the Sea

Story

Ariel, the Little Mermaid is envious of the humans who live on land.

If I had legs and could stay in the sun as a human for even just one day, I would be the happiest mermaid in the world.

We understand your feelings. Ursula, won't you help this poor girl

Flotsam & Jetsam take Ariel to Ursula.

Well, pretty princess. What is your problem? Tell me.

If Ariel becomes human and goes ashore, what wonderful things may be waiting for her! But then, she'll have to leave her dear family and friends. Ariel can't decide what to do.

No, Ariel, don't go! This is your world!

Which will Ariel choose:
The world under the sea or the world above?
