

SPLASH MOUNTAIN

Howdy folks! Like to hear a bit about Splash Mountain? Well, the splashing all started when Rakeety Raccoon's still blew up, taking the Beaver Brothers' dam with it and flooding the mountain from the peak on down.

There's still plenty of critters who live there, though. One of the most talked about is Brer Rabbit. Now one day, Brer Rabbit got tired of always gettin' himself into trouble. So he decided to leave home and go look for his Laughing Place.

Unfortunately, Brer Fox and Brer Bear set out to catch him. Will he find his Laughing Place safely?
